Ta' Cenc Hotel

Hotels & Guesthouses ,Gozo, Sannat, Malta

Description

Surrounded by tranquillity, immersed in nature and embraced by relaxation.

As the day dawns and the sun stirs the crickets, nature comes to life and a harmonious peace fills the air. Blending effortlessly into its surroundings on Gozo's highest point, the 84-roomed, five-star Hotel Ta' Cenc caters to the discerning traveller by personifying style, comfort and hospitality. Expect an experience far removed from the commonly visualised high rise city hotel with fitted carpets, chandeliers and marble floors; expect an escape to nature, where you feel right at home and are able to relax.

Nestled within a Natura 2000 site, this expansive hotel takes its guests back to nature, encouraging them to explore and enjoy their surroundings while still sensing the soothing ambiance that awaits them back at base. The hotel is literally at one with nature, spread over a staggering 1.5m sqm of idyllic countryside very rich in flora and fauna. Ensconced into a bird sanctuary, the hotel boasts its own picturesque rocky beach and medieval palazzo within its grounds. The hotel is a haven for those keen to discover ecotourism, or to delve into the eclectic and exciting history of this tiny Mediterranean island. It is a dream destination for those planning a romantic island wedding, is a cultural melting pot of unique activities and a one-of-a-kind location to bring your guests as part of your next event, conference or incentive. Be part of nature, history and a culture you'll grow to love.
